

WEEK 9 QB STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR PLAYERS ON LESS THAN 60% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

MARCUS MARIOTA (ATL) VS LAC

After a strong performance last week, he will face off against the worse defense in rush yards per attempt and is one of the riskier options considering he may not throw more than 20 passes (four of the last six games). However, if you need a bye-week fill-in QB2 in superflex leagues, he does have some upside, as I expect them to be able to move the ball and have opportunities to score a couple of touchdowns.

TAYLOR HEINICKE (WAS) VS MIN

Over the last two games, he's been a solid streaming option in single QB leagues throwing over 200 yards and scoring two touchdowns in consecutive games. He's facing a bottom-ten defense in completion %, passing yards per attempt, and passing yards. With six teams on bye this week, he's a low-end streaming option in single QB leagues or a high-end QB2 in superflex leagues.

JARED GOFF (DET) VS GB

Struggling recently, he has been able to move the ball (averaging over 250 yards per game) but has trouble scoring touchdowns (one in the past three games). Facing a solid GB defense vulnerable to the run, I think there are opportunities for them to score touchdowns as they'll be able to move the ball. He's a high-end QB2 in superflex leagues but a boom-or-bust streaming option.

4

JUSTIN FIELDS (CHI) @ VS MIA

Being utilized as a rushing threat in the offense, he's finally showing the upside as a dual threat averaging over 75 rushing yards in the last three games while running for a touchdown in consecutive games. He's also been better as a passer, throwing a touchdown in four straight games. Facing a bottom-ten defense in rushing touchdowns, he's a low-end streaming option in single QB leagues.
