

WEEK 12 QB STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR PLAYERS ON LESS THAN 70% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

MATTHEW STAFFORD (LAR) VS PHI

Coming off one of his best games of the season, Stafford's numbers have been boosted due to the return of Cooper Kupp and Puka Nacua. Over the last five games since the bye week, he has surpassed 275 passing yards and thrown multiple touchdowns in three of those games. He also has flashed top-five upside with two games of over 300 yards and four touchdowns during that same time. It's a tough matchup against PHI, but I still consider him one of the better streaming options.

GENO SMITH (SEA) VS ARI

Despite his unimpressive performance last week, he has been inconsistent recently, throwing multiple touchdowns in two games and no touchdowns in the previous four games. However, his passing volume has been decent, as he has consistently surpassed 200 passing yards in every game this season except Week 1. With an upcoming matchup against AZ, it's not as great as we thought earlier in the year, but with DK Metcalf healthy, I'm optimistic that Smith will be a top-15 streaming option.

TUA TAGOVAILOA (MIA) VS NE

This one is risky, as he has struggled with consistency since his return from injury. However, coming off his best game since injury, he may be finally shaking off the rust and showing some of the upside that we saw last season. Since returning from injury, he has thrown multiple touchdowns in only two of his last four games and surpassed 250 yards only once. With a matchup against NE, I'm not expecting him to finish in the top five, but he's a top-15 streaming option with some upside.

4

BO NIX (DEN) VS LV

Coming off his best game of the season, he's been a solid streaming option over the past couple of weeks and could potentially be worth starting for the rest of the season. He has flashed top-ten upside with over 275 passing yards and at least three touchdowns in two of his last four games. With an upcoming matchup against an LV defense that just gave up three passing touchdowns last week, he becomes one of the better streaming options available.
