

QB STREAM WEEK 10

11/10/2020

These five QB are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

DEREK CARR - LV VS DEN

The thing about Carr is that he's obviously talented, it's just the team doesn't want to rely on him to win the game. He was efficient last week with two touchdowns on 23 passes, but we will need more than that if he's a streamable option. Facing against DEN, I'm not excited to start him but you may be out of safer options. He's a floor play in two QB leagues and a desperate start in single QB leagues.

TEDDY BRIDGEWATER - CAR VS TB

Even against a good defense like TB next week, I'm not hesitating to stream him if you have Mahomes or another QB on bye. He's been a top 15 QB this season coming off one of his best performances against KC. He may not have the upside as other QBs here because of the matchup, but a decent floor of 225 yards and a couple touchdowns is a reasonable expectation.

JARED GOFF - LAR VS SEA

Technically, he doesn't qualify for this list at 63% ownership but it would be silly to not recommend him. After giving up a huge performance to Josh Allen, the SEA defense will be looking to bounce back but I'm confident in the offense and believe there's a floor of 200 yards and two touchdowns for Goff. He will not have the huge upside as this team likes to run the ball, but I will be starting him over nearly every other option listed here.

BAKER MAYFIELD - CLE VS HOU

Here is where it gets tricky. If the above options are gone, then I would consider him if he's able to clear the Covid 19 list in time. Facing against HOU, we know they will have to put up points to keep up with Deshaun Watson. After giving up over 300 yards and two touchdowns to a sixth round rookie QB, this defense doesn't scare me.

TUA TAGOVAILOA - MIA VS LAC

Come aboard the rookie hype train! Coming off a good performance against AZ, I would be placing bids on him in leagues where I don't have a top 5 option on my roster. He's facing against LAC next week, which does have me worry about Bosa & Ingram. Even with that, I'm still confident that they will need to rely on him with the injuries to Gaskin and Breida.
