

WEEK 11 DEF STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR TEAMS ON LESS THAN 60% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS VS NYG

Sometimes, an offense is so awful that you must start nearly every defense against them until something drastic changes. This is one of those times. I don't need to explain further how bad this NYG offense has been with Tommy Devito as the starting QB. The thing is, this defense isn't good either. I'm not saying this is a top-five defense this week, but I just don't see how they can fall beneath the top 12 in this matchup. They are a spot start for this week, and I'll be more interested in other options listed here.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS VS TEN

I recommended them last week, and that blew up in my face, but I still believe in this defense. Instead of facing one of the best teams in the league, they face a rookie QB at home on an offense that scored a combined 22 points over their past two games. Don't let one bad week deter you from a top-five defense in forcing turnovers and rushing yards allowed per game. I believe this defense is worth streaming beyond this week against HOU the following week. They are one of the top streaming options for me.

MIAMI DOLPHINS VS LV

Coming off the bye week, they have a great matchup against the LV offense, a bottom-five team in turnovers, and starting a rookie QB. This defense hasn't been too impressive, but they've been decent. Generating multiple sacks in six straight games while forcing turnovers in their last three is great, considering they faced KC and PHI. They also have favorable matchups after this week, facing the NYJ and WAS in the following weeks. They have top-eight upside, and I'll target them in every league.

DENVER BRONCOS VS MIN

I think it's time that we give this defense some credit. After two tough matchups against KC and BUF, they were impressive, forcing at least four turnovers in each of those games. Now they get to face a MIN offense that is within the bottom ten in turnovers at home. They also held their opponents to under 20 points in three of their last four games and have gotten healthier since their bye week. If you cannot grab one of the above options, I wouldn't hesitate to pick them up as a high-floor top-12 option.
