

WEEK 7 DEF STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR TEAMS ON LESS THAN 60% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS VS LV

Despite a disappointing performance last week, this KC defense held a potent DET offense to under 20 points for the first time since Week 1. However, last week marked the first time this DET defense failed to generate multiple sacks and force multiple turnovers in three straight games. Now they get to face an LV offense that's tied for leading the league in turnovers and bottom five in points scored per game. Due to the matchup, they are one of my top streaming options available.

2

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS VS LAR

They had a bad game last week, but are still a top-ten defense this season, and are facing a good LAR offense that lost its star receiver. If Puka Nacua plays, then I would consider another option; however, if he sits out, this could be a sneaky play as the injured BAL defense could force a turnover and generate a sack, something the JAX defense has done in their first four games. Despite a couple of tough matchups recently, they are one of my preferred top-15 streaming options.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS @ TEN

While they haven't been impressive often this season, they are a top-12 defense so far, holding their opponents to less than 20 points in two of their last three games while generating a sack in each of those games. They face a struggling TEN offense that ranks in the bottom five in passing yards, rushing yards, points scored per game, and turnovers. There couldn't be a better matchup for this streaming defense, and if they aren't able to be a top-12 defense, then it would be a huge disappointment.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS VS PHI

Facing a PHI offense that has failed to score 20 points in consecutive games, they have struggled recently. Now, against a MIN defense that is in the top ten in passing yards and points allowed per game, while also being tied for the 10th spot in turnovers forced, this could be a boom-or-bust option. They have generated multiple sacks in every game this season and have held their opponents to under 20 points in three out of five games. It's either them or MIA against CLE if I need a last-resort streaming option.
