

WEEK 9 THURSDAY NIGHT - PHI @ HOU

FOLLOW ON TWITTER/INSTAGRAM:
@AKAMAIFANTASY

FINAL SCORE: PHI 29 - HOU 17

Miles Sanders continues to lead the backfield in touches (54% of the team's rushing attempts & 77% of the RB's rush attempts) and averaged over five yards per carry together with Kenneth Gainwell/Boston Scott.

A.J. Brown and Dallas Goedert combined for a 60% target share and 65% of the team's receiving yards, with nobody else surpassing three targets or 25 receiving yards.

Jalen Hurts remains impressive, averaging nine yards per attempt, completing 77% of his passes, and throwing at least two touchdowns in three consecutive games.

Dallas Goedert finished with a season-high 100 receiving yards on nine targets and scored his 2nd touchdown (averaging over six targets and 65 receiving yards per game).

PHI defensively was struggling to slow down the running game (allowing over five yards per carry) and was lucky to force a couple of turnovers in 2nd half, which led to a PHI TD when the score was tied.

1

Dameon Pierce dominated with a season-high 27 rush attempts for 139 yards (2nd game he averaged over five yards per carry). He surpassed 90 rushing yards in four of the last five games.

2

Philip Dorsett tied for leading the team in targets (5) and accounted for 44% of the team's receiving yards, also getting nearly 50% of his yards from one big play.

3

Davis Mills wasn't impressive, despite averaging 7 yards per attempt and completing 59% of his passes. He failed to surpass 160 passing yards in three of the last four games despite throwing two touchdowns in two of the last three.

4

HOU offensively struggled in the 2nd half, combining for 66 total yards of offense on four of their five drives, with two ending in turnovers and one being a three and out.

5

HOU struggled to convert on 3rd downs (2/9) and were unable to score touchdowns when they were in PHI's redzone (2/4) compared to PHI (4/4).