

DEF STREAM WEEK 10

11/10/2020

These four DEF are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS VS SF

Coming off a great performance against TB in primetime, they have a good matchup at home against an injury plagued 49ers roster. Like I mentioned last week, Kyle Shanhan will coach this team well but to not anticipate this offense struggling is absurd.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES @ NYG

At this point of the season, streaming defenses can be as simple as targeting bad offenses. While Daniel Jones and the NYG offense isn't completely helpless, the turnover upside is too much for me to not consider this team that has a decent defense. In a divisional rivalry matchup that they did well in Week 7, this is my second target for streaming a defense.

GREEN BAY PACKERS VS JAX

Recommending HOU last week backfired, however I'm chalking that up to HOU having a worse defense than I imagined. However, with some film on the rookie QB, I anticipate that this team will be looking to pressure him which may lead to turnovers. I do worry about Robinson, but I think that this team will force Luton to beat them instead of the other way around.

MIAMI DOLPHINS VS LAC

This is not a shot at Justin Herbert. I think he's a top 10 option for the rest of the season. But this MIA defense has surprised me over the past month averaging double digit points over the last four games. This may be the game they bounce back to earth, but facing DEN and NYJ the next two weeks makes this also a longer term investment than the other above options.
