

QB STREAM WEEK 11

11/17/2020

These five QB are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

DEREK CARR - LV VS KC

It's tough. I started Carr last week as a desperate floor play and was still disappointed. I was punching the air when I saw Waller's drop since that could've been a 55 yard TD catch. The passing volume has dropped over the past three weeks but facing KC; I'm still holding onto hope that he can finish as a top 15 QB since he will be keeping up with the high-powered Chiefs offense.

TEDDY BRIDGEWATER - CAR VS DET

Disclaimer: He's day to day with an MCL sprain. I could see the team playing it safe this week, but he's a streaming option if he's healthy. Facing DET, who gave up a career-high in passing yards to Alex Smith last week, I'm optimistic about his performance if he gets the green light. He may not be the priority ; just don't forget about him because he also faces MIN after.

KIRK COUSINS VS DAL

He's now back on the streaming radar with a matchup against DAL next week. The biggest concern is that Dalvin Cook will run all over the defense that Cousins won't be needed. But at the same time, we have seen Cousins throw for 200 yards and two TDs with only 25-27 passing attempts (Wk 1 & Wk 7). This is nothing more than a coin flip, but many streaming options are at this point in the season.

CAM NEWTON - NE @ HOU

This season, making his first appearance, he has been a roller coaster this season with his boom/bust performances. His threat as a rusher gives him a floor as he is second in rushing TDs this year behind only Kyler Murray. While his passing numbers have been atrocious, nothing scares me about this HOU matchup that gave up over 230 rushing yards to CLE last week.

JAMEIS WINSTON VS ATL

I was strongly considering Dalton vs MIN but decided to go for the back-up with a better supporting cast. I hear people mentioning Taysom Hill, and I'm saying you don't start Hill over Winston unless Payton says Taysom Hill will be the starting quarterback. Sure, Winston's upside is limited, but this is a perfect example of a spot start in superflex leagues. Especially if you're a Brees manager.
