

WEEK 8 THURSDAY NIGHT - BAL @ TB

FOLLOW ON TWITTER/INSTAGRAM:
@AKAMAIFANTASY

FINAL SCORE: BAL 27 - TB 22

With over 200 rushing yards on offense, Gus Edwards and Kenyan Drake each had over 25% of the team's rushing yards, with Lamar Jackson, Devin Duvernay, and Justice Hill also involved.

Demarcus Robinson led the team in targets and finished with a season-high 64 receiving yards after not surpassing 30 yards in a single game this season. Devin Duvernay finished with only four targets (10% target share).

Lamar Jackson finished with a season-high 38 passing attempts, and it was his second game with over 225 passing yards, averaging 6.3 yards per attempt and completing 71% of his passes.

With Andrews injured, Isaiah Likely finished with a breakout performance, finishing second on the team in targets and accounting for 32% of the total receiving yards.

BAL was efficient in converting 3rd downs (6/13) and was able to move the ball, but struggled to score touchdowns in TB's redzone (3/6) and was plagued by penalties (7).

1

Leonard Fournette struggles again, failing to surpass 25 rushing yards and double-digit carries in consecutive games. He's averaging 3.4 yards per carry this season.

2

Mike Evans tied for leading the team in targets and accounted for 37% of the team's receiving yards. However, he did get 41% of his receiving yards from one play and has yet to score in four straight games.

3

Chris Godwin also led the team in targets but accounted for 23% of the team's receiving yards. He's averaging 70 receiving yards and double-digit targets in three straight games.

4

Tom Brady has thrown three touchdowns in four games despite surpassing 275 yards in three of those games. He's averaged 7.4 yards per attempt despite completing 59% of his attempts.

5

TB's rushing offense finished with less yards than Gus Edwards or Kenyan Drake. They also struggled to convert on 3rd downs (4/13) and failed to score touchdowns in BAL's redzone (2/5).