

WEEK 8 QB STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR PLAYERS ON LESS THAN 55% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

CARSON WENTZ- (IND) - VS TEN

Facing a beatable TEN defense, he will look to continue his four-game streak of throwing two passing TDs. Coming off a decent game against a solid SF defense in bad weather, he has been the prototypical "streaming QB," averaging around 225 yards and two TDs and no INT in four games. He did struggle against TEN earlier in the season, but I expect a bounce-back performance.

DANIEL JONES - NYG - @ KC

Despite starting the season strong, he has regressed in recent games and is a risky option with upside facing a struggling KC defense. He can finish with 250 yards and a couple of TDs or 200 yards and an INT. If one of Shepard/Toney/Golladay returns, I'll be more confident in starting him, but be sure to monitor the injury report. I don't plan on targeting him unless I need a bye-week filler in superflex leagues.

TREVOR LAWRENCE - (JAX) - @ SEA

This was going to be about Taylor Heinicke, but I'm deciding to go with someone who can provide a higher floor. Coming off a bye week, he is starting to show some promise finishing with over 300 yards and a TD against MIA. He's also cutting down on the turnovers throwing one INT in the last three games (seven in the previous three). He's not my first target, but is someone to consider if you need someone.

TUA TAGOVAILOA - (MIA) - @ BUF

Since returning from injury, he has thrown at least 275 yards and two TDs, becoming a decent streaming option. However, facing a good BUF defense, there's a reason for concern as he has also been turnover-prone. Nevertheless, I anticipate that Tua will be relied on to score to remain competitive, so I can see another solid performance around 250 yards and a couple of TDs, even if it's in garbage time.
