

QB STREAM WEEK 16

12/22/2020

These four QB are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

JALEN HURTS - PHI VS DAL

Surprised he's still qualified for this list. He had a fantastic performance last week and is facing an albeit improved but still vulnerable DAL defense. His rushing ability while being a competent passer makes him the top steaming option and a priority for any team that doesn't have a top-eight option.

BAKER MAYFIELD - CLE @ NYJ

In case you missed it, he's averaged over 300 yards and thrown 10 TDs over his past four games against some solid defenses (BAL & NYG). He faces an exploitable NYJ defense, who has been better against the run. I'm considering him in my superflex leagues as a high-floor option with some upside if both offenses show up.

ANDY DALTON @ PHI

He's another consideration in a superflex league if you're desperate. He looks solid, averaging over 200 yards and two TDs in five games since the bye. Going against PHI with Jalen Hurts, this could be a higher scoring affair than what some expect. I would consider the above options first, but you know what to expect when playing him.

MITCHELL TRUBISKY - CHI @ JAX

Do you like to gamble? Did you miss out on all of the above options? Facing JAX, this week the matchup is good enough to give me a glimmer of hope that he will have one of his big games. Something around 250 yards and three touchdowns would be the ceiling to expect as he has not thrown for more than 275 yards in a game this season.
