

DEF STREAM WEEK 3

09/14/2020

These four DEF are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS VS NYJ

After a dominating performance against the Vikings last week, the match-up gets easier facing NYJ. If IND can control the time of possession, then you have a top 5 option.

TAMPA BAY BUCS VS DEN

With all the injuries to DEN last week (Locke, Sutton & Lindsay), this is an obvious streaming match-up that will likely give you a concrete floor with upside.

ARIZONA CARDINALS VS DET

With solid performances against SF & WAS, this team has another plus match-up against the Golladay-less Lions. Even if Golladay returns, this is a riskier defense that can pay off if the Week 2 DET defense is expected for the rest of the season.

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS VS CAR

After a tough match-up with KC, this team should be on the waiver wire for mostly everyone's leagues. Facing against a CMC-less Panthers with their secondary leads me to believe there will be opportunities for the defense to capitalize.
