

QB STREAM WEEK 6

10/12/2020

These five QB are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

ANDY DALTON - DAL VS AZ

Depending on how he performs next week, he probably will not be on this list anymore. After an unfortunate injury to Dak, Dalton will start the remainder of the season on one of the league's premier offenses. While he's a step-down, he should still produce Top 12 numbers facing Arizona.

KIRK COUSINS - MIN VS ATL

While he slightly underperform last week, he still gave you a floor with over 225 passing yards and two touchdowns. Now against Atlanta, who helped Bridgewater (CAR) finish within the top 12. The injury to Cook should give Cousins more opportunities, but even if he plays, Cousins is one of the better options available.

GARDNER MINSHEW - JAX VS DET

Another decent matchup for my “epitome of a streaming quarterback.” Facing against Detroit, my confidence in starting him will come down to the health of D.J. Chark, who left the game last week with an injury. If he misses time, I don't blame anyone for being scared away since we saw how the offense struggles without his presence. But, if Chark plays, he could end up with another reliable performance like Houston.

RYAN FITZPATRICK - MIA VS NYJ

I was afraid the Fitzmagic would run out against a beat-up 49ers. He proved me wrong with his best performance of the season. Facing against an injured roster, he will be in line for another strong performance. My only concern is that we could be seeing a great game, but with only 20 attempts, that may not be enough.

RYAN TANNEHILL VS HOU

Disclaimer: This is assuming the team is healthy and ready to play. But facing against a mediocre Houston defense that has given up over 300 yards and two touchdowns last week, there's a good chance that we could be seeing a bounce-back game.
