

QB STREAM WEEK 2

09/14/2020

These five QB are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

KIRK COUSINS - MIN @ IND

Despite throwing 25 attempts, he still finished with over 250 yards and two touchdowns against a decent defense (GB). He will face IND, a team that gave up three touchdowns in 20 attempts last week to JAX. Another repeat performance looks promising, assuming Rivers can keep the game competitive.

RYAN TANNEHILL - TEN VS JAX

Another quarterback whose value isn't determined by large passing volume. With a solid outing against DEN with 249 yards & two touchdowns in 49 attempts, there's reason to believe he can finish with another 225 yards and a touchdown or two.

JIMMY GAROPPOLO - SF VS NYJ

This one is a little tricky because his range of outcomes includes 150 passing yards and no touchdowns because Mostert and Coleman ran for 200+ yards. But with one of the easiest match-ups, he could also finish within the top 12.

DEREK CARR - LV @ NO

Not my favorite option, but that's what streaming is all about. Sometimes you need to struggle just to get by, and that's what this is. I'm betting that the team will be playing behind for most of the game, allowing Carr to finish within the top 15.

MITCHELL TRUBISKY - CHI VS NYG

Didn't you like the other four options? Is your league that void of quarterbacks on the waiver wire? All kidding aside, he could provide some upside against a below-average defense such as NYG.
