

QB STREAM WEEK 4

09/28/2020

These five QB are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

RYAN FITZPATRICK - MIA VS SEA

After a big performance against JAX, we have another plus match-up against SEA whose likely to be leading throughout the entire game. Playing from behind, he's a reliable streaming option that can finish within the top 12, considering that they allowed 2+5+ points over the past three weeks.

KIRK COUSINS - MIN @ HOU

Bounced back against TEN last week with one of his 250 yards and a couple of touchdowns games, which qualified him as a top 12 QB last week. With a possibility of this game getting postponed, he is the last-minute option that you could plug in if they play this weekend.

GARDNER MINSHEW - JAX @ CIN

I know. I started Minshew last week against MIA, and it cost me. But just because it doesn't work out doesn't mean that player is useless. Sometimes you just need to move on, and against CIN, this is a decent match-up to help forget last week's nightmare.

BAKER MAYFIELD - CLE @ DAL

I haven't been a big fan of Baker in fantasy football, but it's clear he's gotten better this year with the new offense from HC Stefanski. Facing against DAL, a defense that given up 30+ points the past two weeks, he could finish with two or three passing TDs with only 200 yards.

NICK MULLINS - SF VS PHI

He is my least favorite option but is likely available in ALL of your leagues as a desperate streaming option against a solid PHI defense. Despite that, I trust that HC Shanahan will develop a game plan that will allow Mullins to manage the game and perhaps score a TD or two.
