

QB STREAM WEEK 8

10/27/2020

These five QB are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

DEREK CARR - LV @ CLE

After a good performance against a tough matchup, I think we need to give some respect to what he has done this year. He has Top 15 performances over the past three weeks against BUF, KC, & TB. With Ruggs healthy and the addition of Agholor has given a new life to the offense and opened up things for Waller and Renfrow. Facing CLE, he's a streaming option.

TEDDY BRIDGEWATER - CAR VS ATL

He may become my new favorite streaming option since he's facing ATL & KC in the next two weeks. He has been more than serviceable with over 250 yards and two touchdowns in three of the last four games. Remember, this is without CMC. While Mike Davis is a good player, CMC's return only helps the offense and is coming soon?

BAKER MAYFIELD - CLE VS LV

Now, if the above two options are gone, then he's what I would be considered a consolation prize. Coming off a five TD performance, he's more likely to have two against a non-threatening LV defense. Because the injury to Beckham was early in the first quarter, I believe you can be optimistic that he will be able to put up 20 points to get you by this week.

KIRK COUSINS - MIN @ GB

I'll be honest. I wouldn't blame you decided to skip this one. After a horrible first half, he redeemed himself in the second half finishing with three touchdowns. Facing against GB, it's not a matchup to steer away from even though there's going to be a turnover at some point. Divisional rivalry can lead to some back and forth games, and you could stream him if you're swinging for a top 12 performance.

JIMMY GAROPPOLO - SF @ SEA

I wasn't high on him last week, and he disappointed me. Personally, I will not allow myself to get to this level of risk when it comes to single QB leagues. But if it's a super-flex league, I could see myself playing him, which sometimes feels like a coin flip. The offense will score, but that running game can take over and leave nothing but yards for him.
