

QB STREAM WEEK 17

12/29/2020

These three QBs are streamable options and currently are rostered in less than 60% of Yahoo leagues.

KIRK COUSINS - MIN @ DET

He has been impressive recently with over 275 yards and two touchdowns against two strong defenses (CHI & NO). Looking back further, he has done this in six of the last seven games with three touchdowns in four. Facing DET, this is an excellent matchup for him to exploit, but being a divisional matchup, I'm a little cautious and consider him a top 12 option.

PHILIP RIVERS - IND VS JAX

Despite a rough performance against a strong PIT defense, I'm looking for him if I need 225 yards and two touchdowns, as he has done this in six of the last nine games. Going against JAX, this is a great matchup, and maybe we can get a little optimistic and hope for an additional touchdown and 50 yards?

ANDY DALTON - DAL @ NYG

If you missed out on the above floor options, he's a decent option to consider despite a tough matchup (NYG). Averaging two touchdowns over the past four games, he has been a steady option in superflex leagues. Coming off a strong performance against a decent PHI defense, he'll look to keep the momentum against another divisional rival.
