

WEEK 13 QB STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR PLAYERS ON LESS THAN 70% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

JACOBY BRISSETT (AZ) @ TB

Another strong streaming performance last week, where he continued to throw over 250 yards (six straight games) and multiple touchdowns in three of his previous four games. He's also been contributing as a rusher with at least 20 yards in two of his last three games. Facing a TB defense that's in the bottom ten in passing yards and points allowed per game, this is another good matchup where the AZ offense will need to throw the ball to move the chains. Brissett has become one of the top streaming options available.

DAVIS MILLS (HOU) @ IND

While he wasn't super impressive last week, it wouldn't be fair not to acknowledge that Davis Mills has been a competent streaming option. In the previous three weeks, he has thrown over 250 yards in two games or has thrown multiple touchdowns. While the IND defense isn't a great matchup, they are in the bottom five in passing yards allowed per game, so if HOU wants to score, they will need to throw the ball. There's certainly some risk, but the upside makes him a solid top-15 streaming option.

TREVOR LAWRENCE (JAX) @ TEN

Coming off a solid performance, I'm still not too confident since he's so inconsistent. He has thrown over 200 yards twice in his last four games, and last week was the only multiple-touchdown performance in those same four games. However, facing a TEN defense that's in the bottom ten in points allowed, there's some potential upside for Lawrence, especially as a rusher, running over 20 yards and scoring three touchdowns in four games since the bye week. It's a coin toss as a last-resort streaming option.

TUA TAGOVAILOA (MIA) VS NO

Despite being a boom-or-bust streaming option in recent weeks, he has flashed some upside and is facing a NO defense that's given up at least 21 points in all but two games this season. Throwing multiple touchdowns in two of his last four games, he has also failed to reach 200 passing yards in consecutive games. Despite the decent matchup, the NO defense is more vulnerable against the run (top ten in passing yards allowed per game). I would take a chance on Tua as a last-resort option or Sam Darnold facing MIN.
