

WEEK 13 DEF STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR TEAMS ON LESS THAN 60% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

LOS ANGELES RAMS @ CAR

Coming off one of their best performances, this top-five fantasy defense is worth rostering as a weekly option. Forcing multiple turnovers in four straight games and holding their opponents to under 14 points in two of those games, they looked good even against competent offenses (SF & SEA). This week, they face an inconsistent CAR offense that ranks in the bottom five in turnovers and points scored per game (failed to score double digits in two of their last three games), making this the top streaming option.

ATLANTA FALCONS @ NYJ

After a dominant performance last week, this ATL defense continues to impress, generating at least five sacks in four straight games and forcing multiple turnovers, despite giving up at least 24 points in three of those games. Now they are facing a struggling NYJ offense that's in the bottom ten in points scored and total yards per game, and has failed to surpass 14 points in consecutive games. Because of this matchup, they are one of the better top-15 streaming options available with top-ten upside.

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS VS LV

Coming out of the bye week, they're hoping to bounce back from a rough performance after looking solid recently. Excluding last week, they were holding their opponents to under 17 points and generating at least three sacks in three straight games while forcing a turnover in two of those. Currently in the top ten in points allowed per game, they are facing a struggling LV offense that's in the bottom three in total offensive yards and points scored per game. This defense is a solid top-15 option with top-five upside.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS @ TEN

While this defense has been decent, forcing a turnover and generating multiple sacks in three of their last four games, this is more about the matchup. Facing a struggling TEN offense that's in the bottom three in total offensive yards and points scored per game, this is too good a matchup despite the risk of being a divisional opponent. On paper, they should be among the top options, but I feel less confident and prefer one of the options above. Despite that, they are still worth streaming as a top-15 option.
